MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello Everyone,

Well, a lot has happened since your last newsletter. Sadly the Committee has recently accepted Roxi Moore's resignation as President and her duties as a committee member. As a result I am now Acting President until the AGM in November.

We thank Roxi for her hard work in the past 2 years. After a rest and a Bali holiday, Roxi is fully intending to continue with her stage manager and directing projects, and we wish her every success. We'll also be sad to say goodbye to Jeremy Moore who has just this week moved away to Rockingham, and to that end will be unable to attend his role as photographer etc.

Meanwhile we welcome 2 new committee members, Amanda Neal as Membership Development and Sandra Cechner as Social Convenor,

Needless to say I am still getting my head around various tasks and reallocating them. But first and foremost I need to focus on the final couple of weeks in the rehearsal period for Steel Magnolias. Hence a very basic newsletter to keep you in the loop.

I have a wonderful cast of ladies, who are bringing a wealth of experience and understanding to their roles. I've also been blessed to have Geoff Holt on board to design the lighting and sound program. He will hand over the operating fairly soon to our new operator, Lachlan Kessey. Ali McNamara, along with her brother, Gio Gianatti (who was press-ganged I'm sure) and Rebekah O'Brien have built the set and will be painting it in the next few days. Maggie Adams has been keeping an eye on costuming. Last but not least, I've been blessed with my stage manager and props/backstage lady, Wendy Goodwin and Marion West coming out of retirement to get us all under control. Thank you Wendy and Marion.

Tickets are selling well so don't leave it too long before booking. Remember we are still offering $10 off ticket prices on Opening Night, Thursday 1st August.

I hope to see you all at Steel Magnolias soon.

Take care, stay safe

Lynne Devenish

EDITOR'S NOTES

Hello All,

Wearing my Editor's hat I shall endeavour to compile a much longer newsletter next time. So many events in the pipeline. After Steel magnolias there is Tag's production Poe: Dreams of Madness, which has just been cast and now rehearsing.

The AGM will be on us before we know it, followed by The Lion the Witch and the Wardrobe.

Christmas and New Year and then our own special Awards Night.

Time certainly flies. Stay safe everyone. Regards Lynne
